

Are Planetary Alignments Linked to Earthquakes?

Earthquake in Thailand and Myanmar 7.7

March 28, 2025

Can Earthquakes be predicted in advance of time to an actual date? I believe so, but not using the present methods. Maybe the information below will "struck a chord" with someone, then this research can be taken to the next level. Sometime back, I did an analysis for Mexico City, Mexico, after reading what the top scientist said there was no "scientific explanation" for the three major quakes on the same day, but different years.

"The National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM), one of the country's most prestigious seats of higher learning, said there was no scientific explanation for three major quakes on the same day and attributed it to pure coincidence".

What is the probability of 3 earthquakes hitting Mexico City on the same date, September 19 (between 0.000751% and 0.00000024% according to some experts).

Is there a written formula for Earth's earthquakes?

Mexico City was founded on March 13, 1325. The major earthquakes on September 19, for 1985, 2017, and 2022 are below.

September 19, 1985 – Transiting Sun 180-degs Mercury, with Mercury 90-degs Neptune, and Sun 90-degs Neptune.

Mexico City is due for another earthquake on or about September 19, 2025. This would be the 4th earthquake for this same date. With the odds given by UNAM for just the 3 earthquakes on September 19, what do you think the odds of this repeating again? Will you still think it a coincidence?

There is a shared fault line between Mexico City, and the San Francisco Bay area in California. When you look at the two largest earthquakes in the last 100 years+ in the San Francisco Bay area, you see an interesting line up, an oddly similar pattern appears.

When will the BIG ONE come? The next major earthquake in the San Francisco/Bay area will be on or about September 8, 2027. This is based on math and the Earthquakes in April 18, 1906, and October 17, 1989. This is the first time, in a very long time, transiting Mercury will be 180-degs transiting Neptune, and at the same time, transiting Mercury will be “negative” by angle to the natal Sun in San Francisco’s natal chart.
